

our embrace

Lately...

I haven't been sleeping well,
I've been hearing things.

Strange noises,
They sound like they're coming from under my bed

I've checked.
There's nothing down there.

When I do sleep

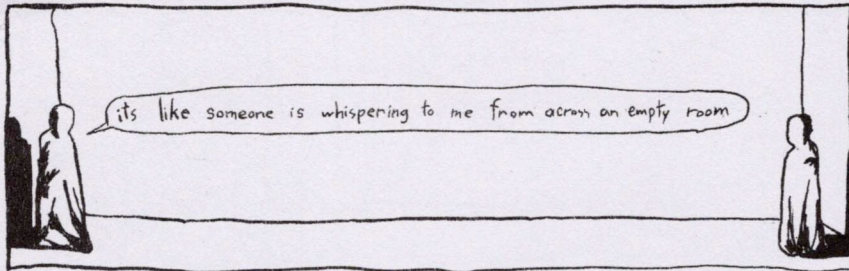

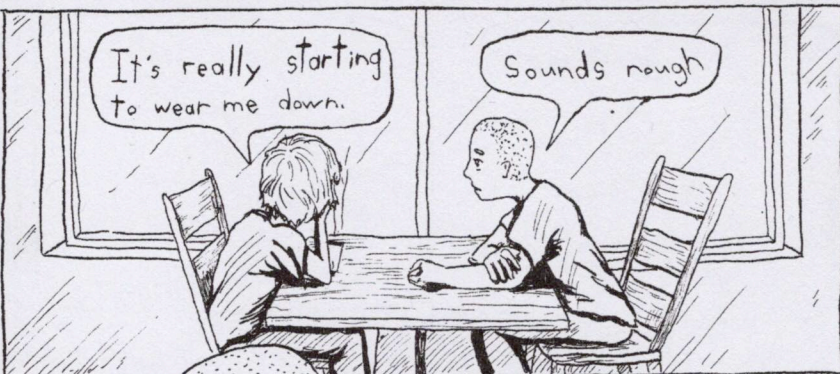

I dream

I can't see anything

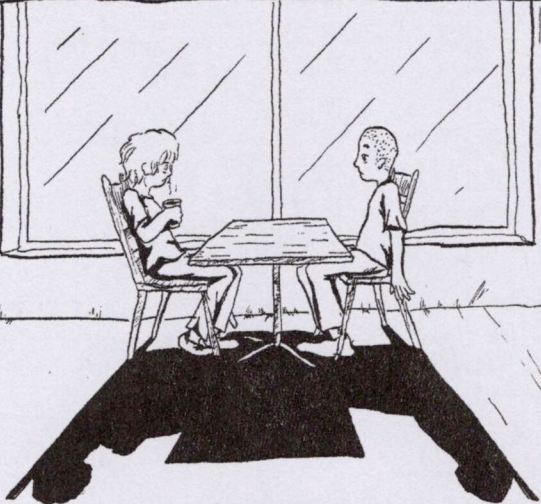

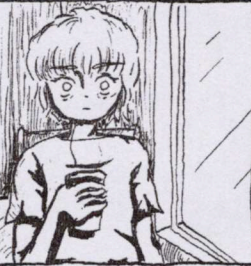

But I can hear.

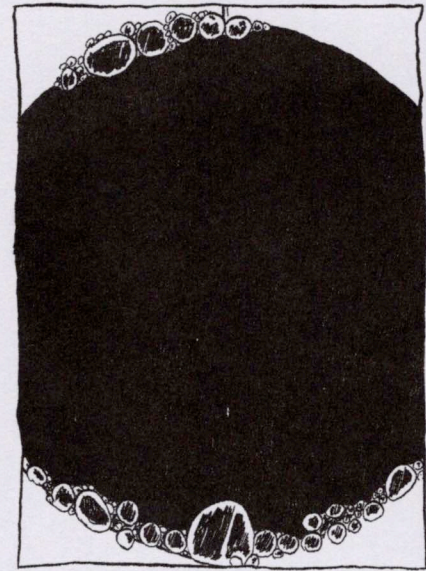

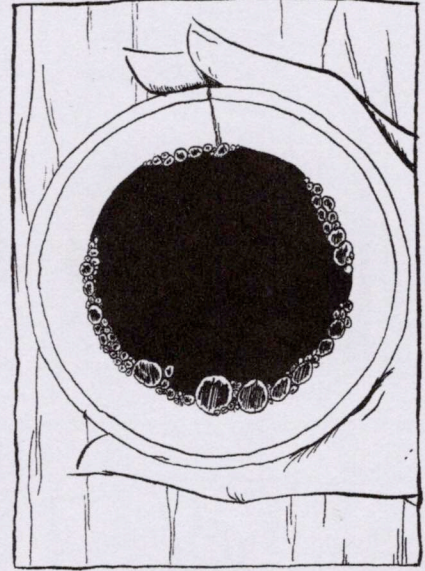

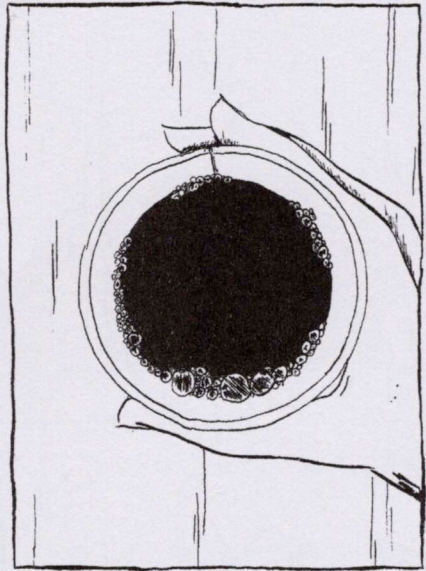

Sounds kind of nice

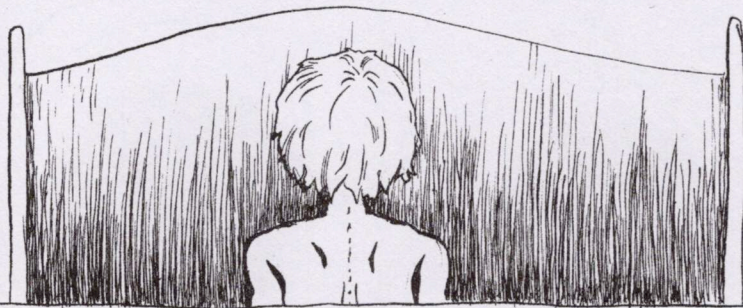

Have you tried talking to it?

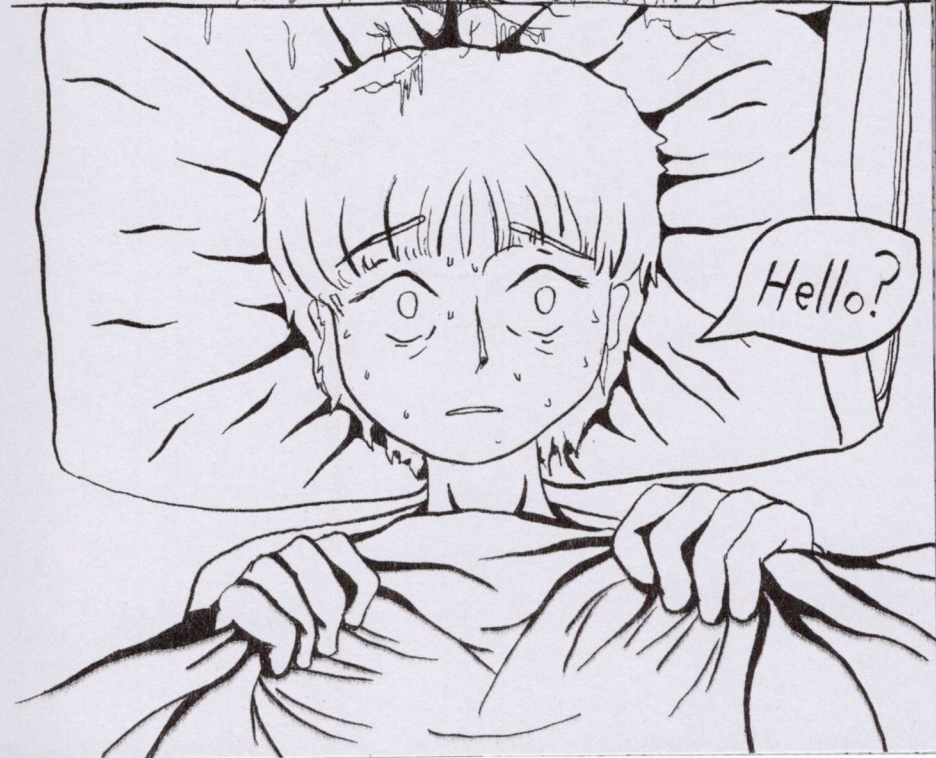

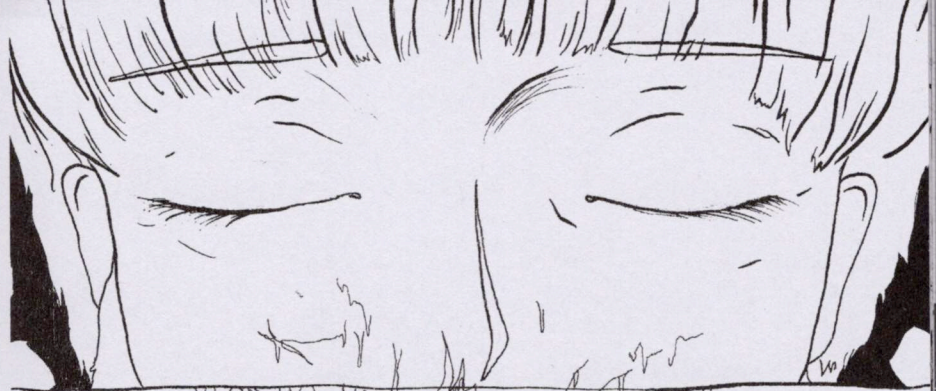

besides...

What if it responds?

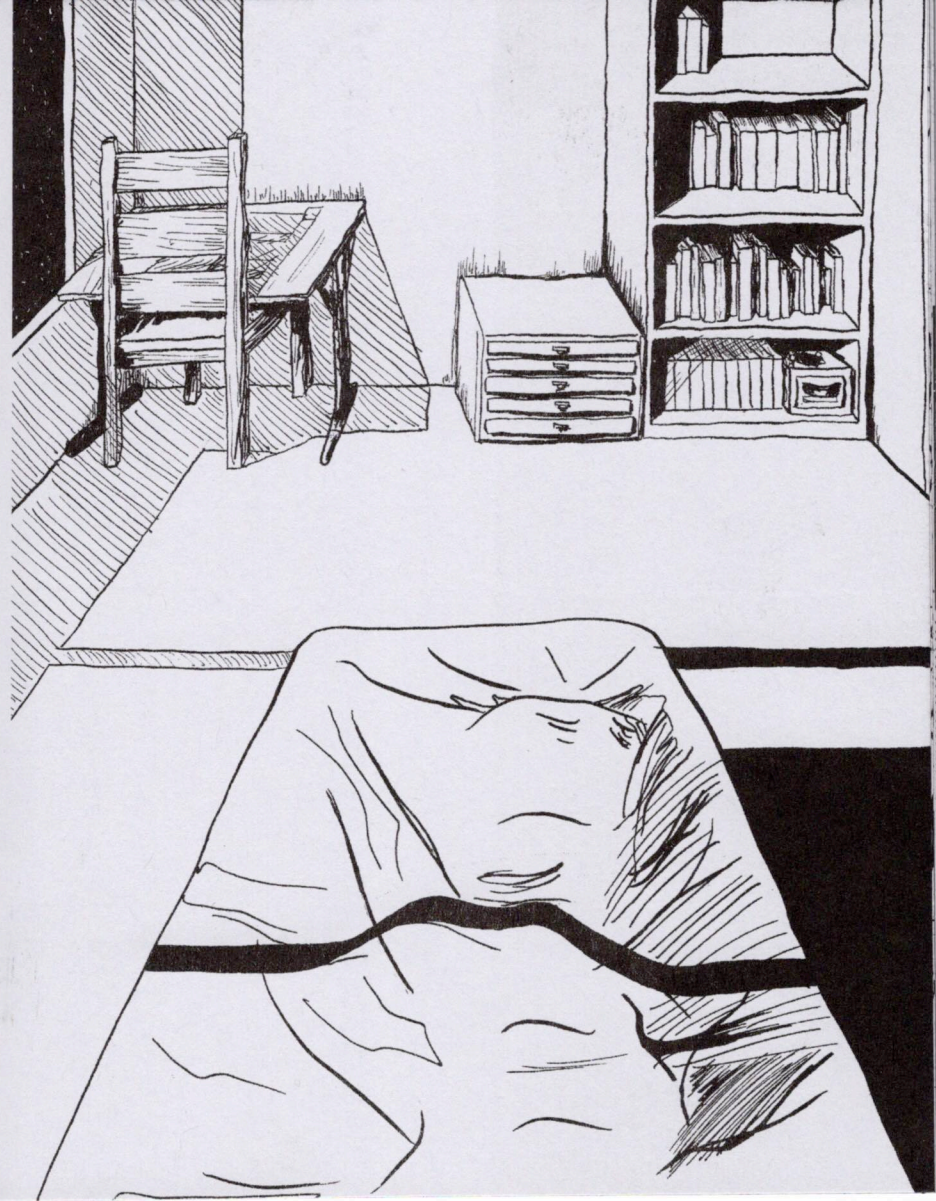

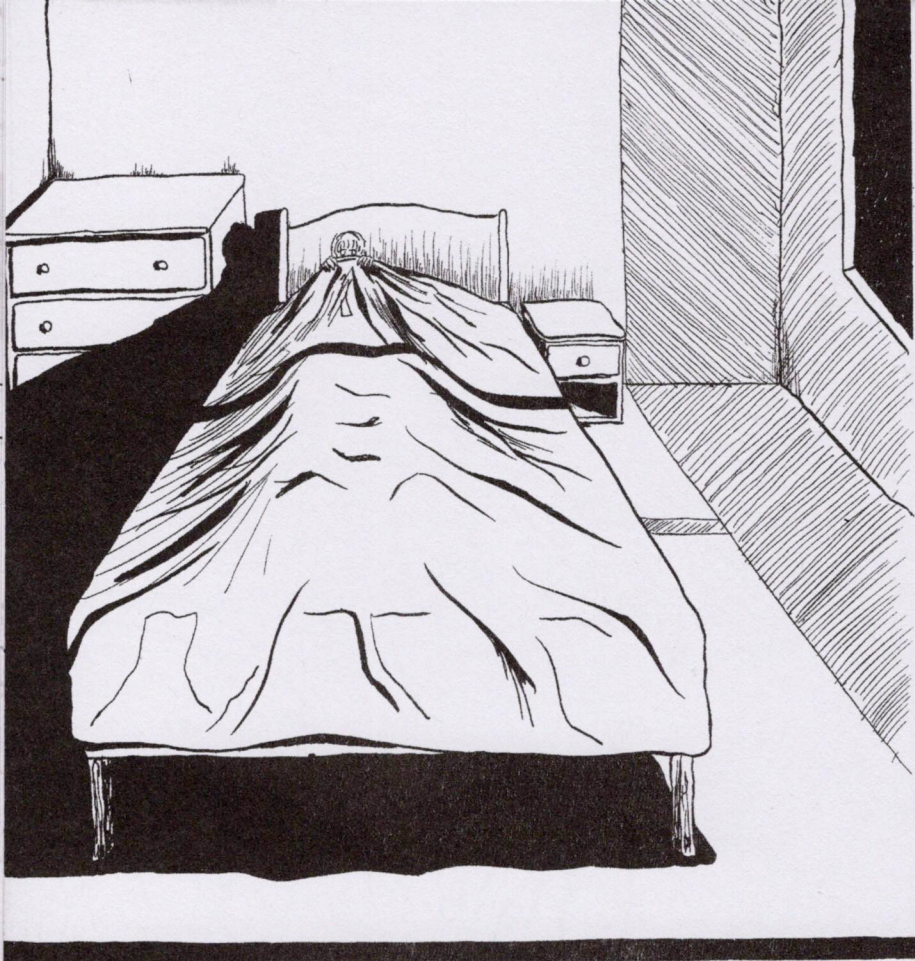

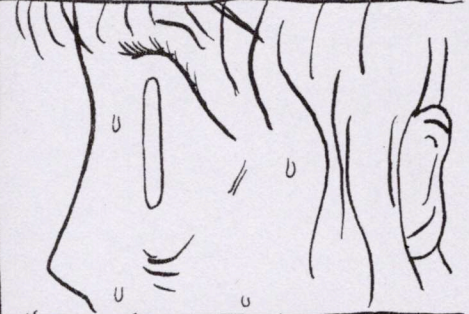

Have you tried talking to it?

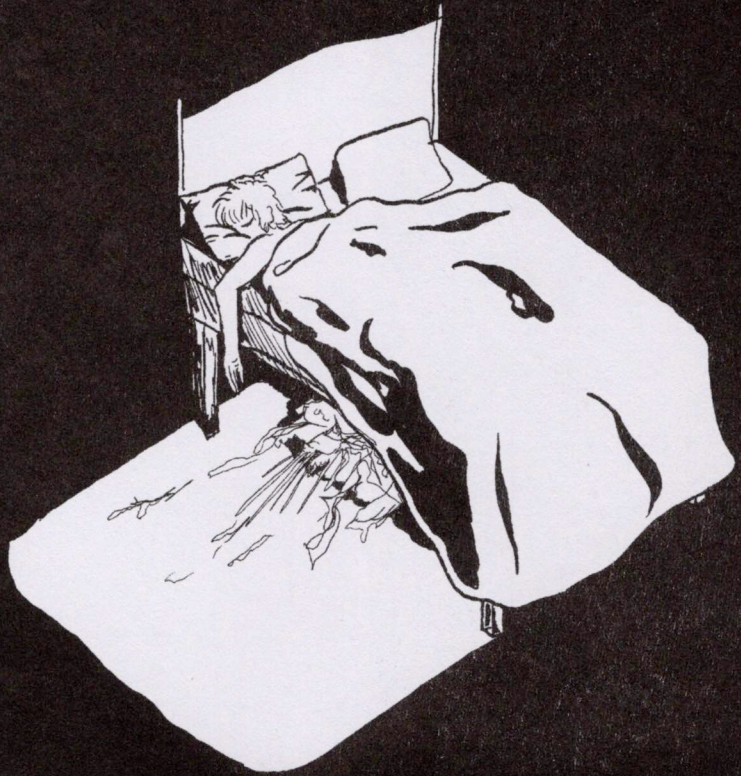

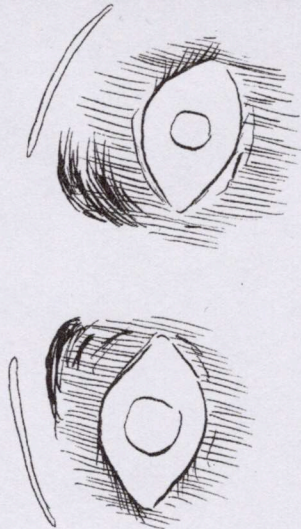

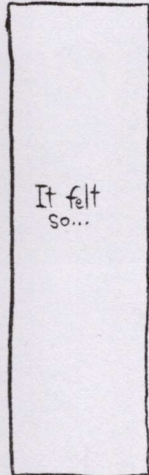

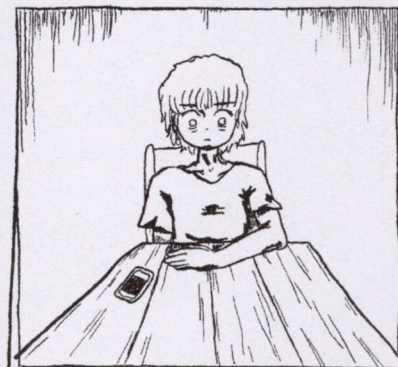

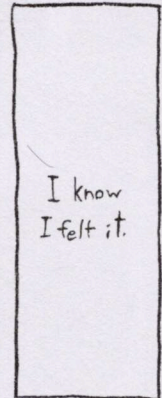

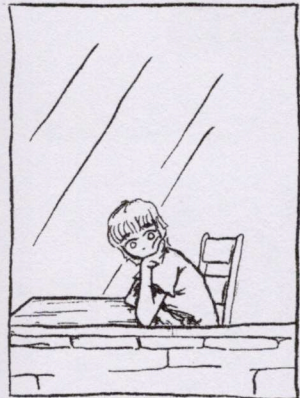

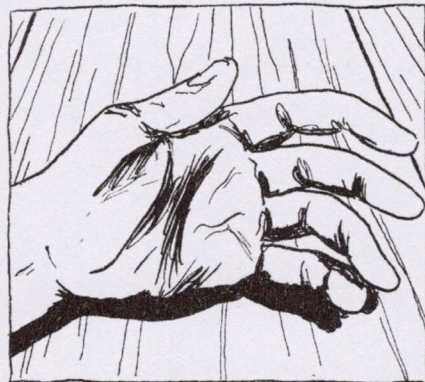

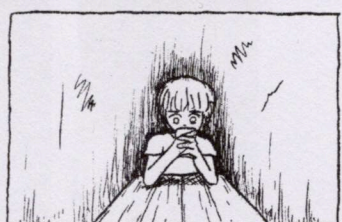

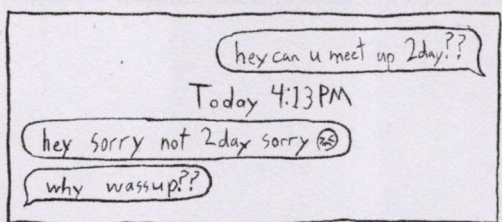

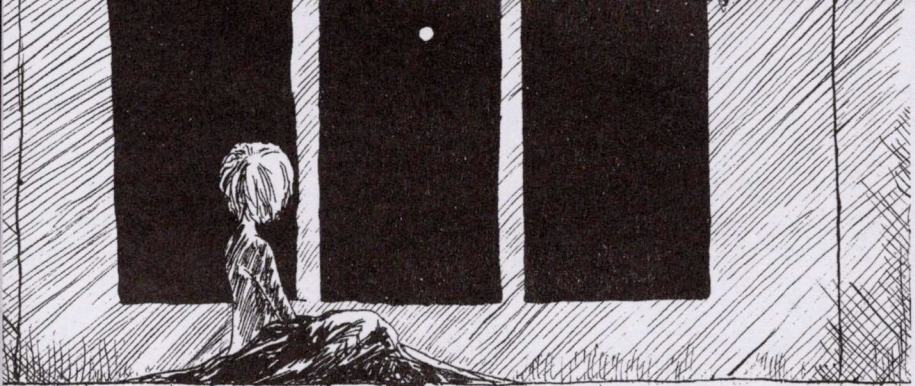

ifelt it

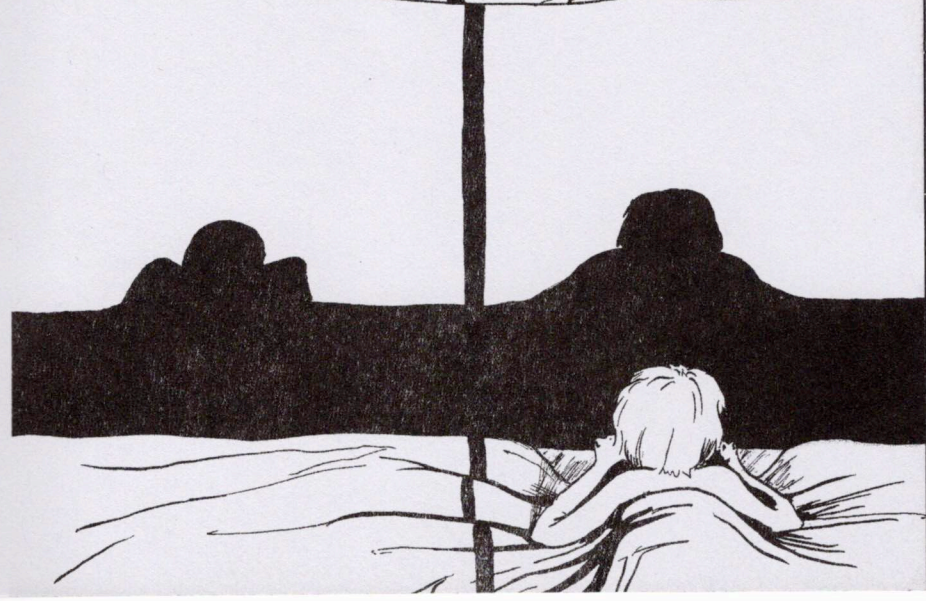

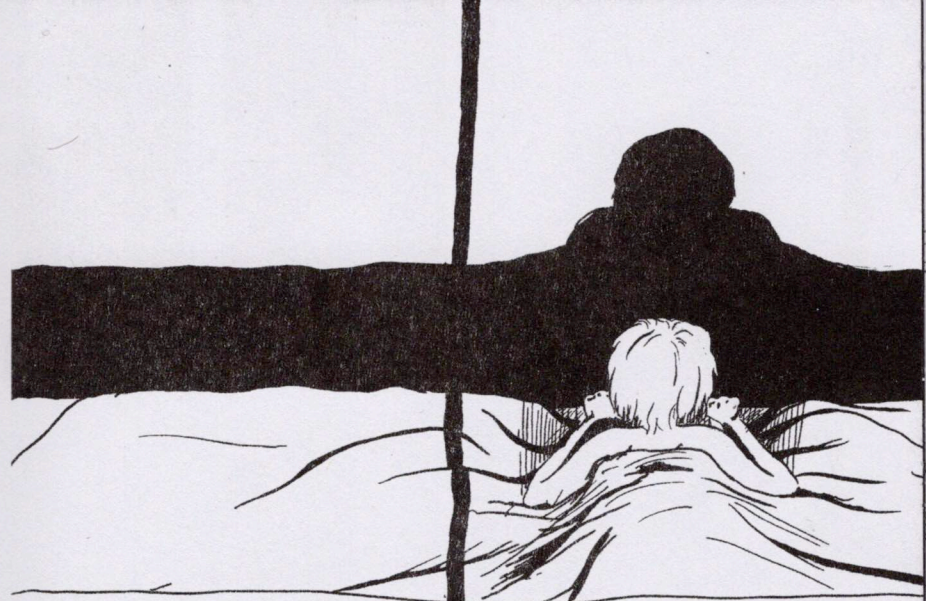

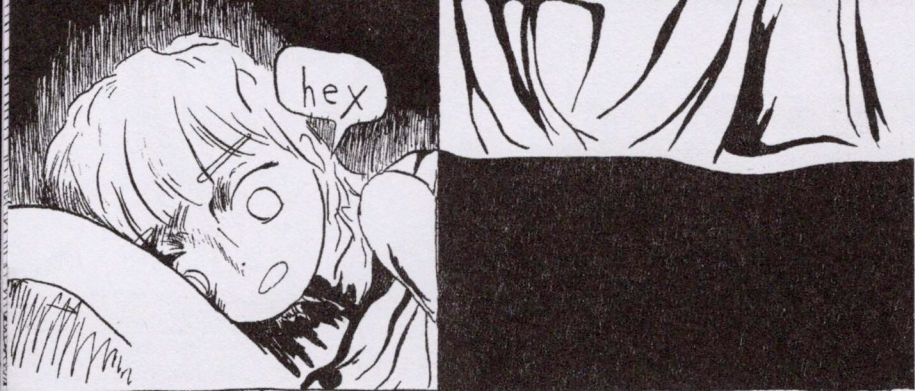

nothing

it's silent

Who's there?

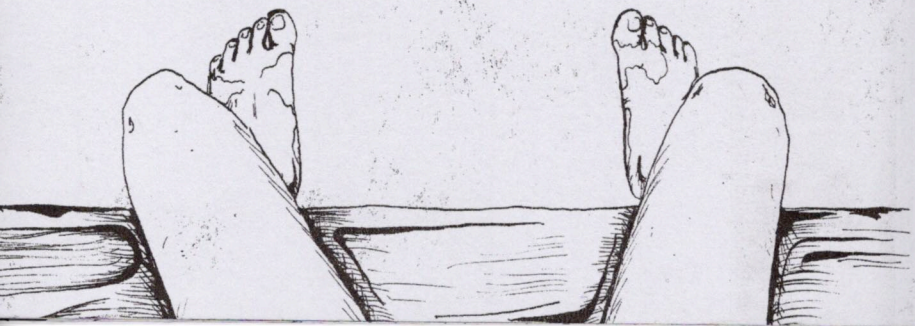

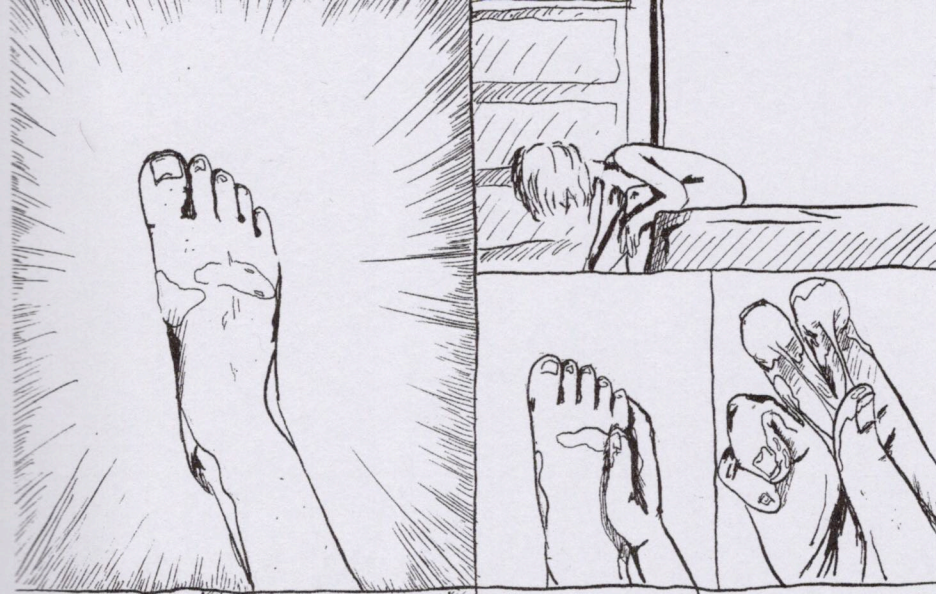

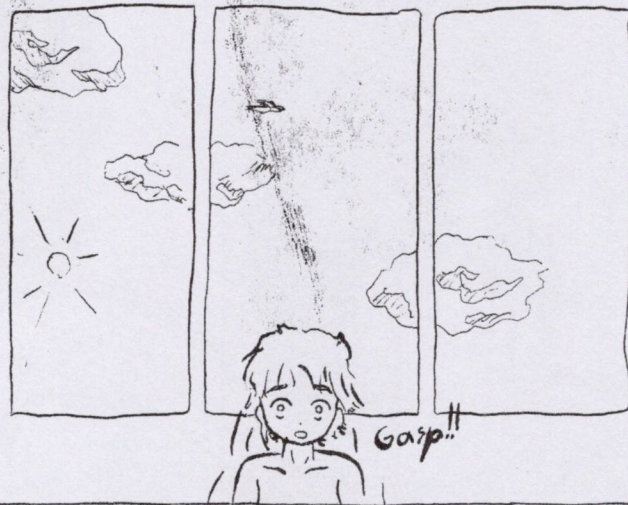

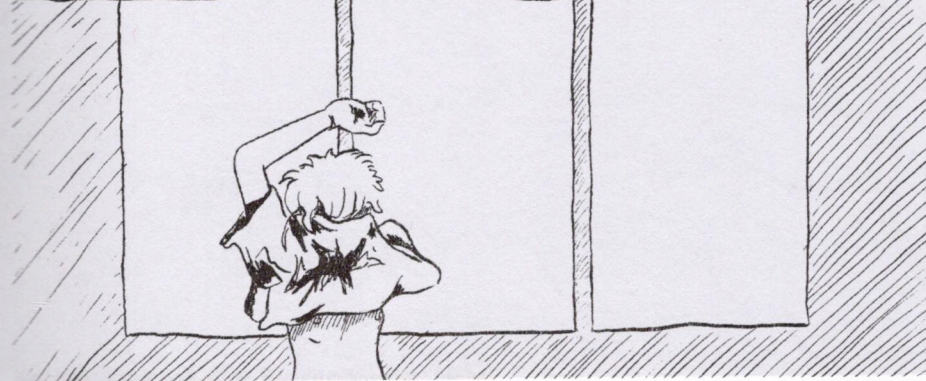

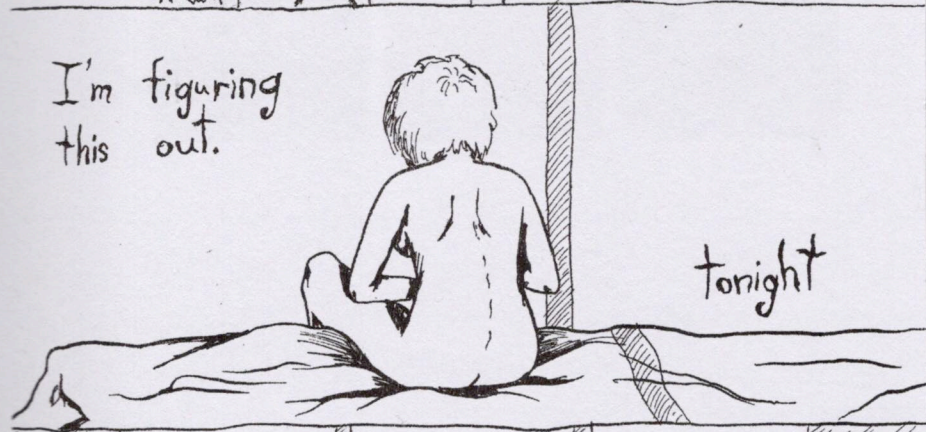

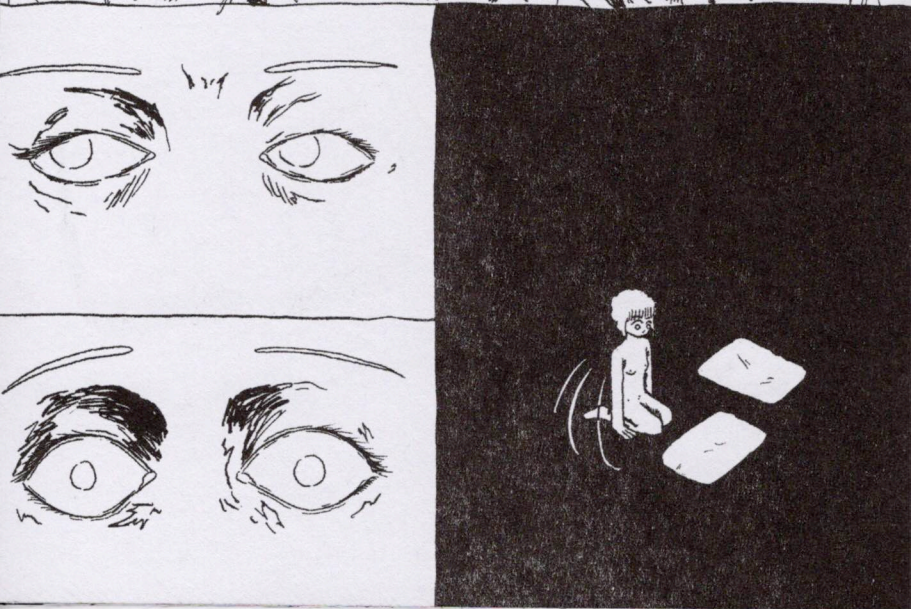

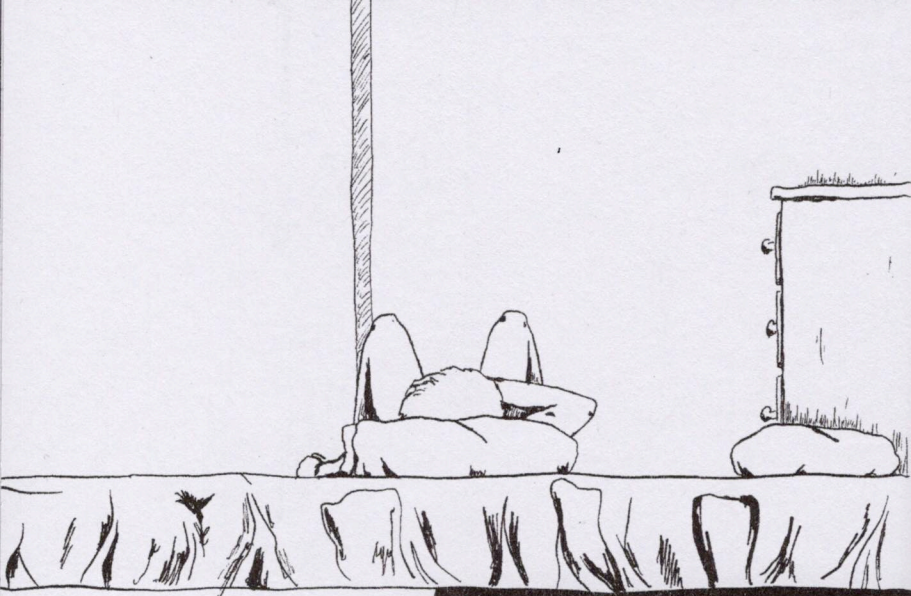

Where'd you go?

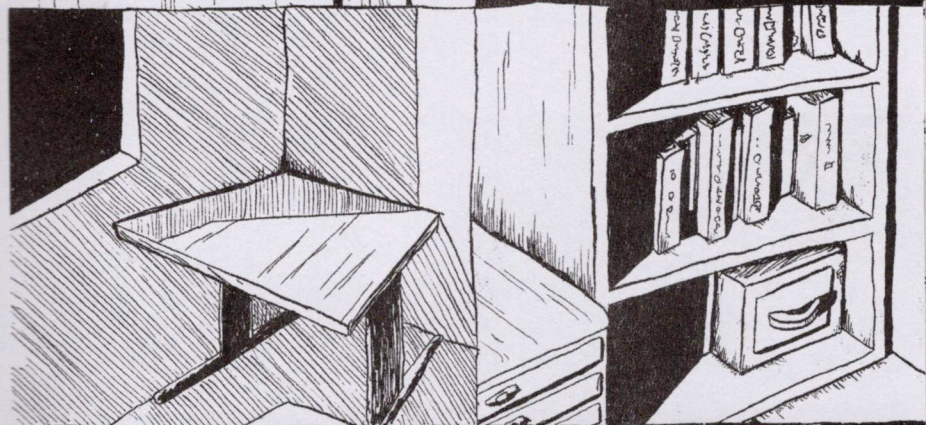

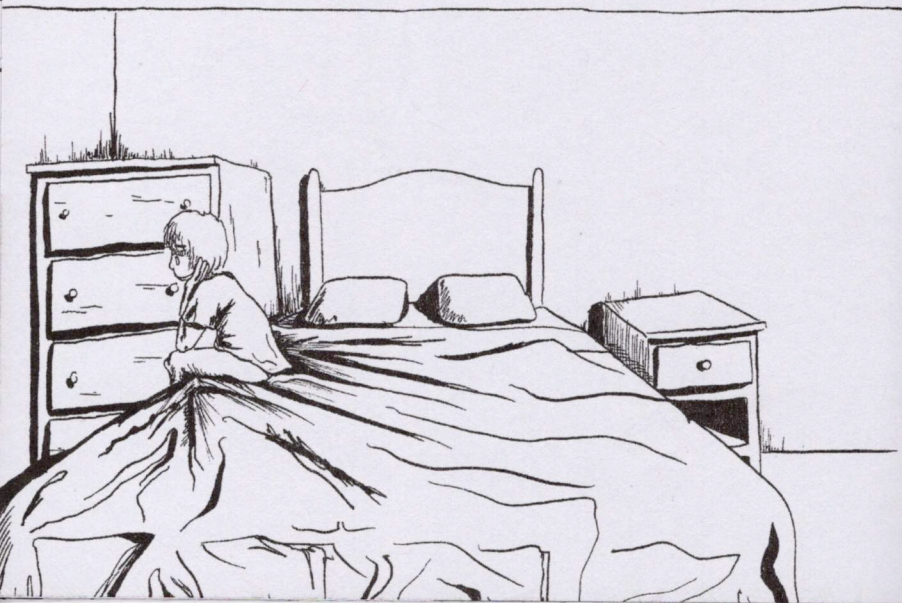

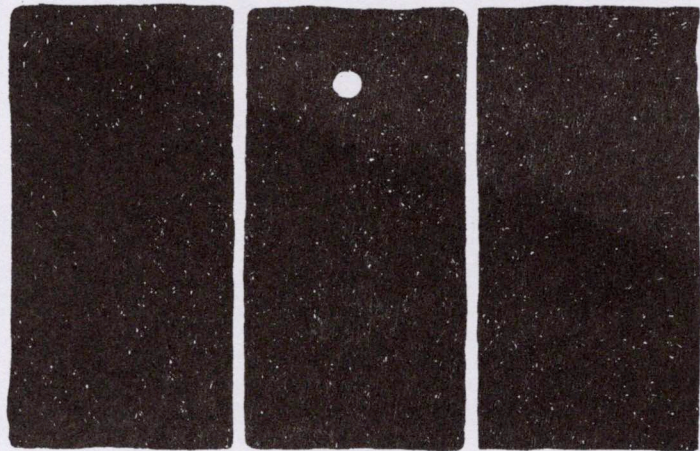

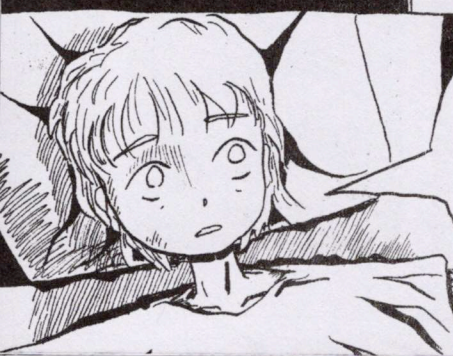

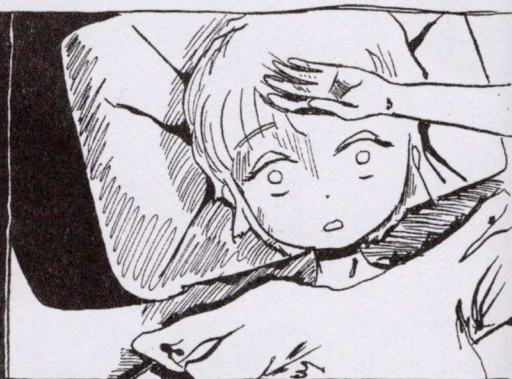

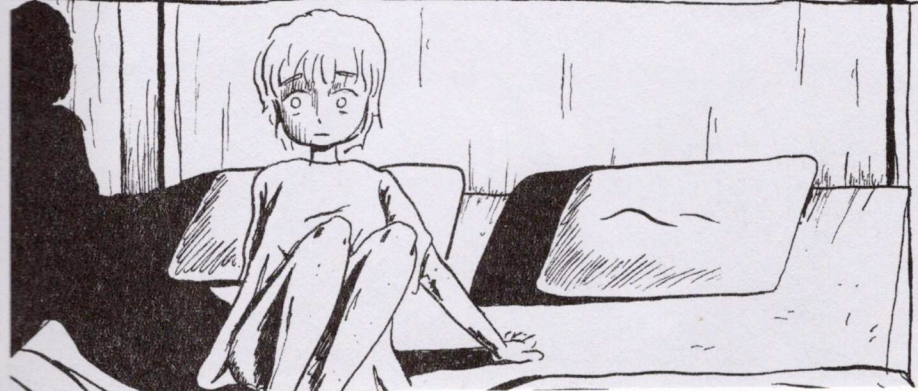

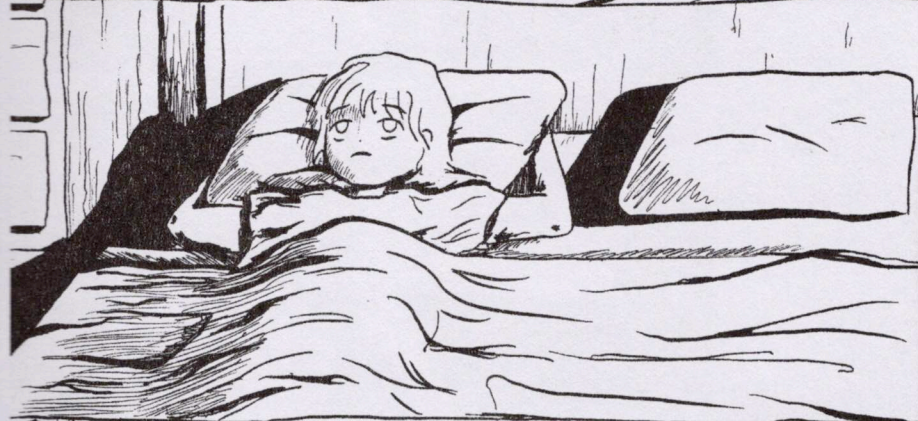

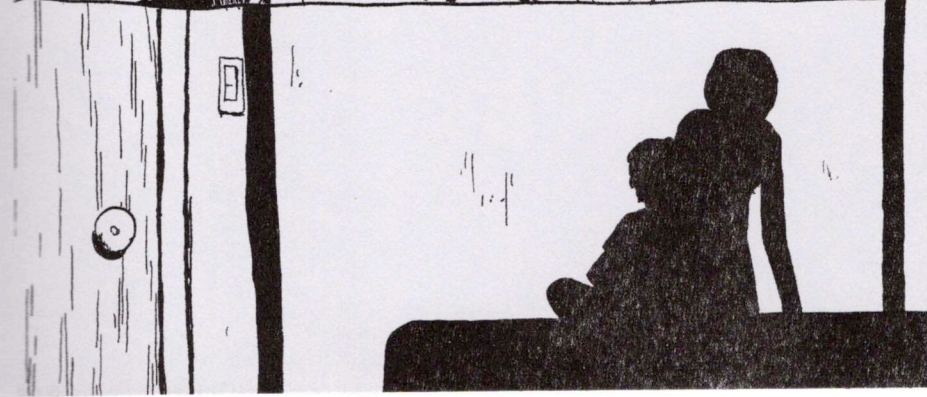

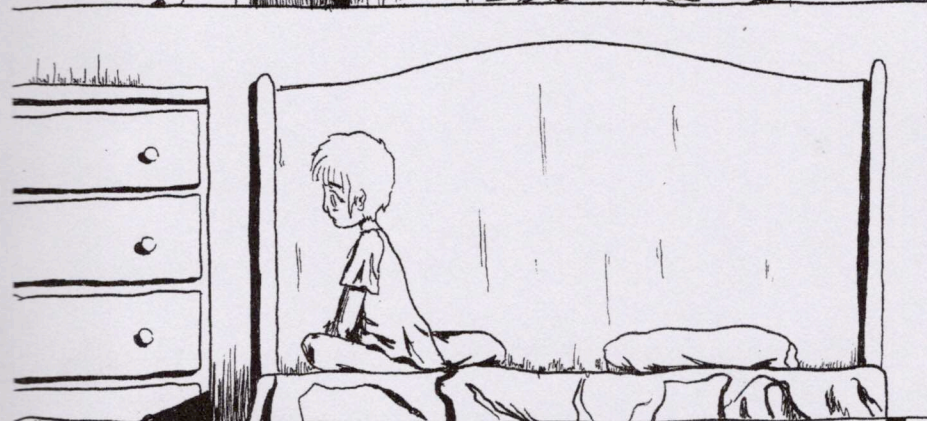

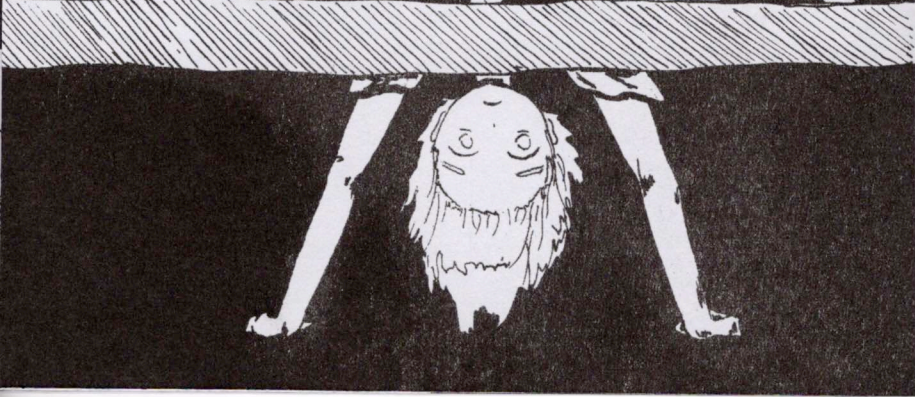

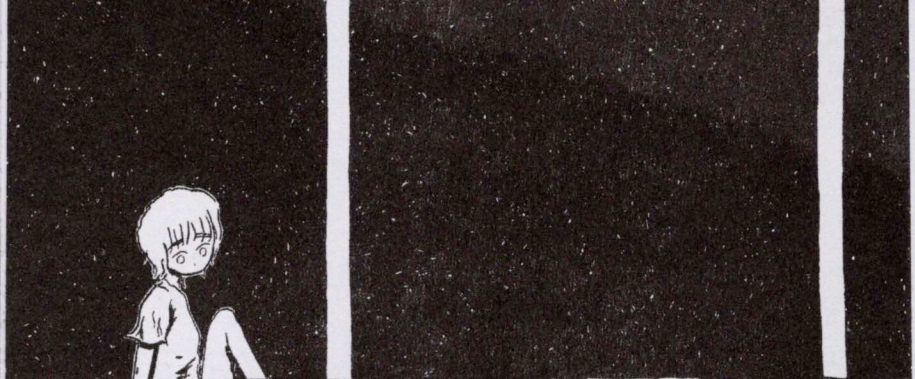

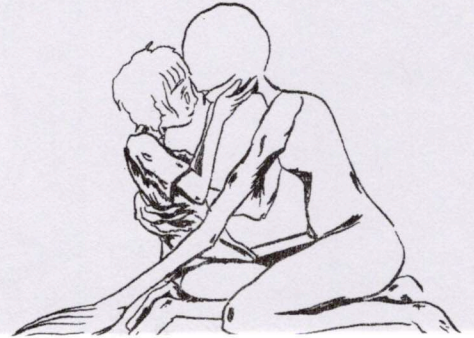

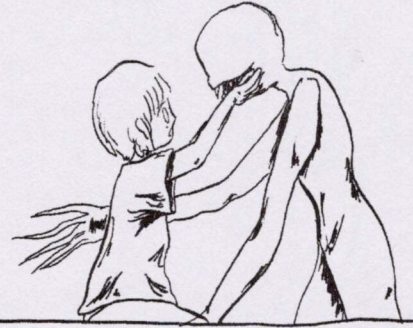

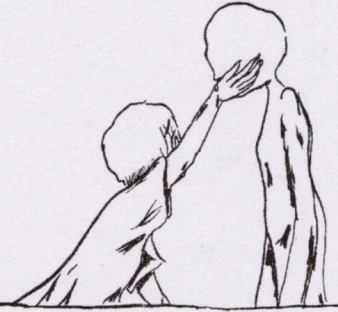

I just want to know you're real

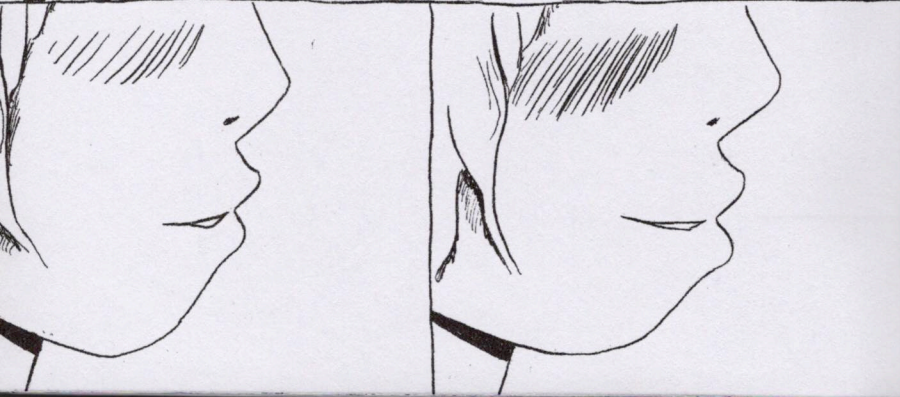

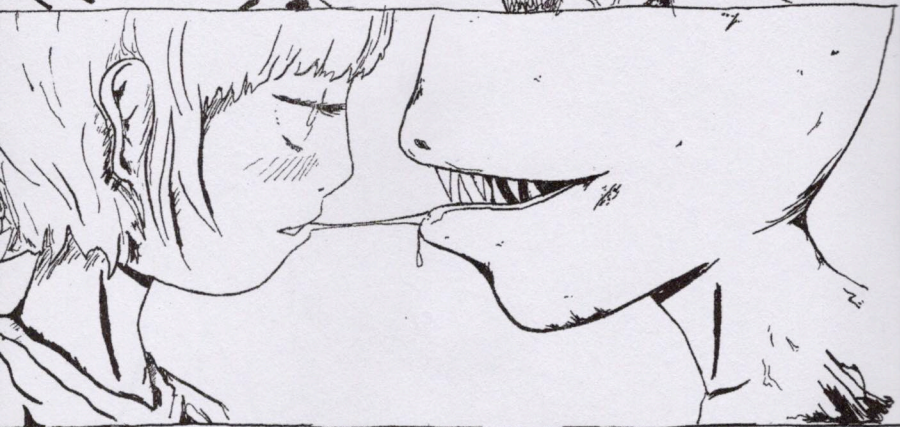

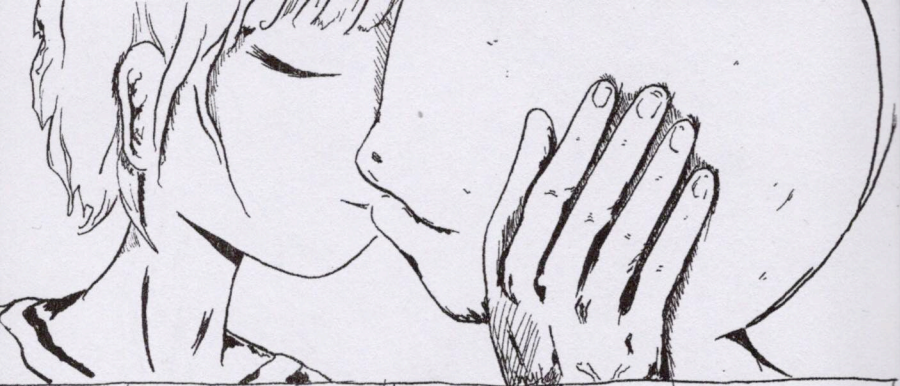

I just want to know that you're really here.
